

Italian Episodes (in Milan and Bozen)

On February 20th, 2010 Luca D'Ambrosio (Bozen) and Fabrizio Zavatarelli (Milan) met in Milan. Zavatarelli is very interested in the chess of the 19th century and works on a biography of Ignaz Kolisch. The meeting took place nearby the cathedral.

The city's landmark:
The golden statue of madonna at the top the cathedral

The Milan Cathedral

Luca D'Ambrosio and Fabrizio Zavatarelli (on the right)

FIDE Master and KWA member Antonio Rosino has recently participated in the EU senior team championship at Dresden; on February 22nd he was a guest of the chess club ARCI Bozen where he gave a four-hour lecture on rook endgames - all that spiced up with anecdotes from his long chess career.

On this occasion he visited together with Luca D'Ambrosio the grave and the last domicile of Daniel Harrwitz.

(cf.:

http://www.chesshistory.com/winter/winter61.html#6286._D._Harrwitz and <http://www.kwabc.org/Home/Harrwitz.htm>.)

Antonio Rosino at the grave of Daniel Harrwitz at the Bozen cemetery

Antonio Rosino in front of Daniel Harrwitz' last domicile in Bozen

Antonio Rosino gives a lecture
in the chess club ARCI Bozen

Text and pictures: Luca D'Ambrosio