

2024-02-18

Exhibition: Chess and porcelain

Porzellanikon

For a complete view please click on the image

On 15 March, an exhibition will open in Hohenberg an der Eger, which for the first time is dedicated exclusively to porcelain and chess.

The following information can be found in the "Schach-Ticker".

SCHACH & PORZELLAN. DIE WELT AUF 64 FELDERN – eine Sonderausstellung des Porzellanikons
(18.2.2024)

Facts about the exhibition

- Objects from 12 countries: Germany, Austria, Italy, Poland, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Spain, Portugal, Great Britain, France, China and Japan.
- "The World on 64 Squares" is the first exhibition in Germany to exclusively show chess pieces made of porcelain.
- Various activities and events on the subject of chess are planned to accompany the exhibition.
- A 116-page catalogue will be published to accompany the exhibition.
- The exhibition at Porzellanikon in Hohenberg an der Eger will run from 16 March to 13 October 2024. Opening hours: Tuesday to Sunday and on public holidays 10 am to 5 pm. There are 28 chess sets, 43 individual pieces and 34 sets of pieces on display.
- Address: Porzellanikon Hohenberg a.d. Eger, Schirndinger Str. 48, 95691 Hohenberg a.d. Eger, phone: +49 9233 7722-0, website: <https://www.porzellanikon.org>

Siegfried Schönle (Kassel), February 2024

