Hommage to Alfred Hrdlicka

(27/02/1928 - 05/12/2009)

The artist Alfred Hrdlicka passed away in Vienna on December 5th.

All his life he was connected to chess, his volume "Schach Zeichnungen 1" [Claasen Verlag, Düsseldorf 1983] adorns many a collection.

The young Hrdlicka was regarded as a chess player of great talent, but not always he was able to cope with the nervous strain of a tournament game.

At the second International Students Team Tournament at Brussels in March 1953 he played at the second board of a mixed team of two Austrians, one Frenchman and one Belgian.
Here his first round victory against the Englishman Peter Clarke:
