

2018-10-24

Lasker-Day in Leverkusen

Michael Negele

Two of the proud editors could sign a bunch of copies for our friend Bernd Schneider

The Bayer chessclub in Leverkusen had taken up the initiative of the German Chess Federation to celebrate a Lasker Day of Chess in autumn 2018. By chance it was also an unexpected opportunity to present Emanuel Lasker Volume I hot off the press (Article at Chess Notes)

More pictures from the event:

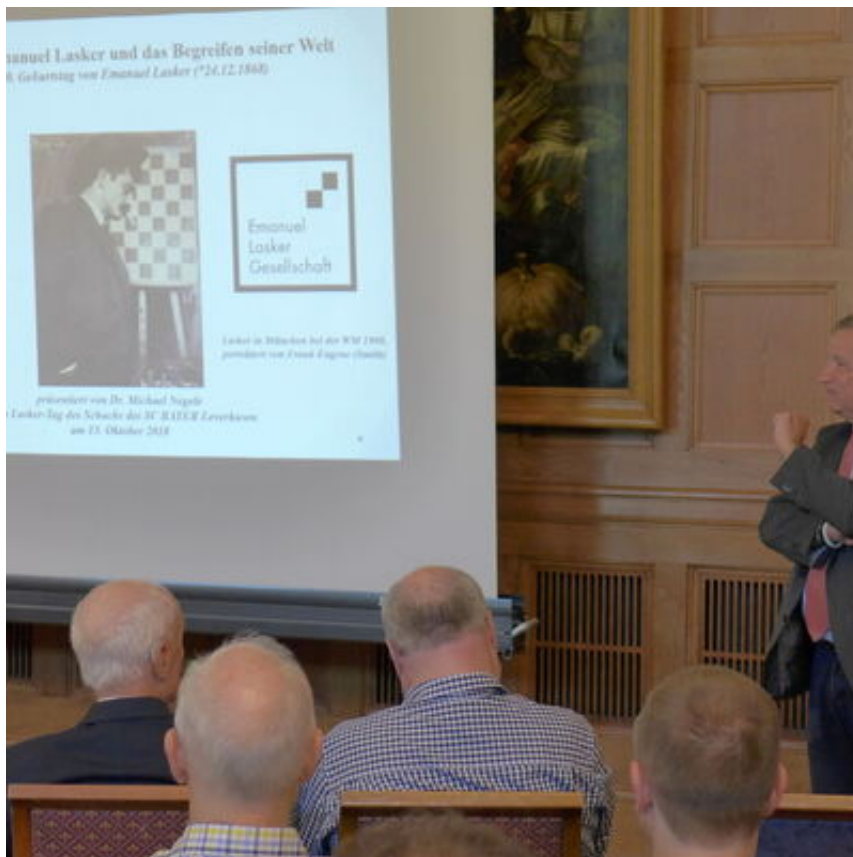

-

Michael Negele

Welcome by Michael Axmann, chairman of the chess club Bayer Leverkusen

•

Michael Negele

Michael Negele with his lecture The Sphinx Emanuel Lasker and in the Comprehension of his World

•

Michael Negele

Michael Negele (front) and Marco Bär (right back) at the Leap-Frog Simultan on 11 boards.
Result: +7, = 3, -1

Michael Negele

Emanuel Lasker (in the front) and Paul List at a simultaneous exhibitions on 44 boards in Berlin, 1929

Michael Negele

•

Michael Negele

Our chairman Bob van de Velde (left) back at the chessboard

•

Michael Negele

IM Richard Forster (against Joachim Engelhart), IM Herbert Bastian and Ralf Schreiber (from right)

More information:

 Lecture by Michael Negele

 Lecture by Dr. Jörg Bewersdorff

- Report on the DSB website \(in German\)
- SC Bayer Leverkusen (A report will be published shortly)