Meeting in Brunswick and trip to Ströbeck, the Chess Village

Short preview of the visit to Ströbeck

The Ken Whyld Association's trip to Ströbeck, the Chess Village on June 23, 2006

The visit to Ströbeck, the Chess Village was part of the supporting programme of this year's June auction of the house Klittich-Pfankuch, below a group photo of the participants in front of the Chess Tower - some guests had joined the KWA members. A photo report of this event will soon be published at our site.
