2013-06-15

Prague - Braunschweig 2013

 Vlastimil Hort and Michael Negele during the lecture

Once again Michael Negele was on a chess tour last week: he visited the ČEZ Chess Trophy 2013 in Prague (match David Navara vs Yifan Hou) and gave a lecture there on the history of blindfold chess.

On coming Friday afternoon, 21st of July, he will give a newly arranged version of this presentation in Braunschweig, after the preview in the Klittich-Pfankuch auction hall – here the title slide as PDF. The lecture will start at 5:30 – 5:45 pm and will take 45-60 minutes.

We will still prepare a more detailed illustrated report on both events in the week after next, naturally some web reports on the Prague event are already online, you will easily spot Michael Negele several times …

ChessBase reports in German: 10/06/2013, 12/06/2013, 14/06/2013 and 16/06/2013 and in English: 11/06/2013, 12/06/2013, 14/06/2013, and finally 14/06/2013.

Report on www.praguechess.cz: Thirteen centuries of blindfold chess in Michna palace