St. Sebastian 1911 – Capablanca's triumphant entry into Europe

Frank Hoffmeister and Georges Bertola

On Saturday 6 September, the first presentation was given by Georges Bertola on the 1911 San Sebastian tournament. This was Capablanca's first tournament in Europe, and he made a big impression.

Georges is a Capablanca specialist, and I also refer you to the first volume of the biography of the brilliant Cuban player:

In places of honor

Nimzovitch

Schlechter vs Tarrasch

Players were reimbursed for their travel expenses and received 80 francs per win and 40 francs per draw.

« In any case, another contender for the world championship has now emerged, that coveted crown for which we can expect to see a fierce battle unfold in the near future. »
Mises

It would still take 10 years for this to happen!
