Wijk aan Zee 2014

The tradition of our January meeting in Wijk aan Zee lives on - Guy Van Habberney has written a short report on the event, and Michael Negele has provided many photographs.

On January 18, the KWA held – as is customary – an informal meeting in Wijk aan Zee. Bob van de Velde had arranged for a magnificent meeting room in hotel Het Hoge Duin. Some 19 members attended, and heard a short introduction by the chairman. Michael Negele was thanked with a surprise present for all his years and efforts at the service of the KWA. He will also be made honorary member of the KWA.

Alexander Baburin, Ron Bleeker (partly hidden), Jurgen Stigter, Bernd Ellinghoven and Bob van de Velde

Since we now are a fully fledged Foundation-Association, the tasks of the new board members were also explained:

Guy Van Habberney: Chairman, charged with overall coordination and Public Relations, including CSQ;

John Donaldson: Deputy Chairman, responsible for North American members and outreach to Cleveland, Saint Louis and Mechanics Institute;

Bert Corneth: Publications and outreach to Royal Library in the Hague;

Andreas Saremba: Database, including memberships, website and outreach to Kiel library;

Michael Clapham: Treasurer and Secretary;

Ralf Binnewirtz: Webmaster (not a member of the board).

members: Remco Heite and Ton de Vreede

After a brief Q&A session, GM Alex Baburin then gave a brief but very interesting overview of how he developed his auction website. This was followed by a short pause, when members could do what they are really good at: buying and selling chess books. Hotel Het Hoge Duin had even arranged for a surprise vendor, in the person of Mr. Oving of 'Mulder Boekenvreugd'.

GM Baburin then gave a simul, where opponents could choose their color and were allowed two passes. He duly clobbered the chairman, Bert Corneth, Henri Serruys, Jurgen Stigter, Remco Heite, Andreas Saremba and Erik Corneth (a new junior member), but was held to a draw by Michael Negele, Harrie Grondijs and Willem Oving.

Start of the simul - Alexander Baburin and top arbiter Geurt Gijssen. Naturally a simul at only 10 boards was no real challenge for the GM.

rare guest of our meetings

• Alex Baburin playing against Michael Negele

Here is the game, fittingly a Dutch Stonewall - quite well played by Michael, and with short comments by him:
