

Jon Edwards won the 10th United States Correspondence Championship in 1997 and the 8th North American Invitational Correspondence Chess Championship in 1999. He is a four time winner of the APCT (American Postal Chess Tournaments) Championship and a two time winner of the APCT Game of the Year Award. He received his correspondence International Master (IM) in 1997 and his Senior International Master (SIM) in 1999. He has competed on the United States Correspondence Chess Olympiad team, reaching the final round. His correspondence ICCF rating of 2580 placed him the top 200 correspondence chess players worldwide.

Jon has an AB from Princeton and an MA and PhD in Economic History from Michigan State University. He has worked at Princeton University for 25 years as Assistant to the Vice President for Computing and Information Technology and most recently, towards the end of his work life, as Coordinator of OIT Institutional Communication and Outreach within the Office of Information Technology.

Jon has written more than a dozen chess books, notably including The Chess Analyst (Thinkers Press, 1998) which chronicles the success in the US championship, and Teach Yourself Visually: Chess (Wiley, 2006), a photographically based chess primer. He is web master of Chess is Fun (www.queensac.com), a popular chess instruction site. He is also the editor of Chesstamp Review, the official publication of COSSU, the Chess on Stamp Study Unit.

Jon provides chess instruction in Pennington, NJ area. He has taught chess to more than 1,500 students over the past 30 years.