

2009-10-31

Announcement of the Lasker Monograph

Emanuel Lasker Denker, Weltenbürger, Schachweltmeister

Edited by Richard Forster, Stefan Hansen and Michael Negele by order of the Emanuel Lasker Society and published by Exzelsior Verlag, Berlin.

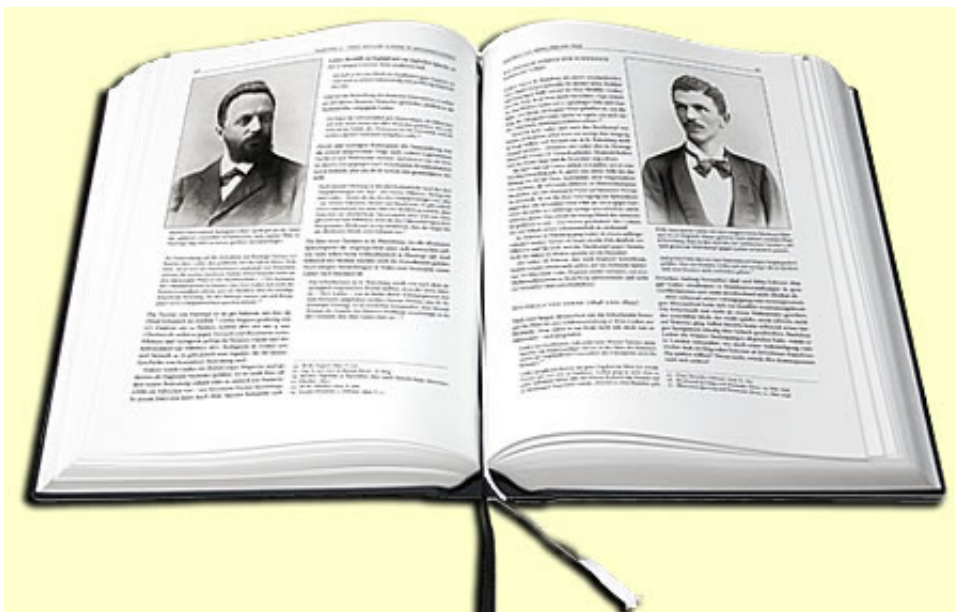

XVI + 1079 pages, with more than 500 pictures, 1600 diagrams and 700 games. Printed on acid-free and ageing resistant paper. Large format, cloth bound.

With contributions by

- Wolfgang Angerstein
- Jesús Bayolo Gonzalez
- Ralf Binnewirtz
- John Donaldson
- Jürgen Fleck
- Tony Gillam
- Bernd Gräfrath
- John Hilbert
- Robert Hübner

- Peter de Jong
- Karl Kadletz
- Wolfgang Kamm
- Viktor Kortschnoi
- Thomas Lemanczyk
- Isaak Linder
- Wladimir Linder
- Tomasz Lissowski
- Roberto Mayor Gutiérrez
- Egbert Meisenburg
- Michael Negele
- Susanna Poldauf
- Toni Prezioso
- Joachim Rosenthal
- Raj Tischbierek
- Robert van de Velde
- Hans-Christian Wohlfarth
- and an introduction by Paul Werner Wagner.

By 25 contributions the top level authors illuminate in detail Lasker's multi-faceted life inside and outside the chess world. His chess career has been analyzed by grandmasterly hands from the very beginning over the long time as a world champion to the surprising comeback in the retirement age. Six key chapters trace Lasker's life and work in Germany, England, the Netherlands, the United States, Cuba and Russia. For the first time Lasker's origin and childhood have been compiled in detail, besides the volume offers an in-depth appreciation of the figure of Jacques Hannak whose biography of 1952 has decisively formed the Lasker image of many generations. Moreover Lasker's own creative activity as a journalist and author has been systematically researched. Reputable experts pursue Lasker's ambitions in the fields of mathematics, of philosophy and of the drama. His achievements in the area of Bridge and Go as well as in the game invented by himself, Laska are appreciated at first hand, and friends of artistic chess don't lose out as well: one chapter each on Lasker's oeuvre in problem chess and in endgame studies round off the diversified work.

You will find excerpts from single chapters at the web site of the Emanuel Lasker Society: www.lasker-gesellschaft.de/...

The book will be available from 20th of November, 2009.

Orders from: Exzelsior Verlag, Berlin (E-mail: info@exzelsior.de), or booksellers (ISBN 978-3-935800-05-1).

Shop price: 114.-- Euro