

2015-04-11

BoC Database

A substantial step has been made in our bibliography project which still constitutes the chief aim of our association. Last year Per Skjoldager established a first version of a database which is operational and available to our members.

Read more on our page Database of Chess Bibliography.