

2011-04-24

Fagernes 2011 - Open Norwegian Championship

Chess Festival at Fagernes Open Norwegian Championship 2011

Our Norwegian member Øystein Brekke who acted as organizer of the new Norwegian festival has sent us a press release and some photos which we reproduce below.

The Fagernes Hotel

From left organizer Øystein Brekke, Sergey Tiviakov and vice-mayor Svein Erik Hilmen.

Tiviakov winning his decisive game against Swedish veteran GM Lars Karlsson.

Anders Thingstad (15) surprised the SOS Opening Surprises editor IM Jeroen Bosch by defeating him.

A game of generations: Per Ofstad (76) (left) was Norwegian junior champion of 1951 and Norwegian champion of 1961, here playing the also talented Sebastian Mihajlov (12) of Oslo Schakselskap.

Norwegians for the future: Aryan Tari (12) was able to draw against Frode Olav Urkedal (17) who is already an IM, but got the title award a bit belated due to a late report.

You will find further results, games and photos at the following pages:

Festival web site

Complete results of group A

ChessBase pictorial report 28/04/2011 (in English)

ChessBase pictorial report 21/04/2011 (in German)

ChessBase pictorial report 26/04/2011 (in German)