

2009-05-16

The Rueb Chess Collection ...

The Rueb Chess Collection in the Library of the University of Amsterdam

The Library of the University of Amsterdam - "Special Collections"

Recently we have won the Library of the University of Amsterdam which houses in its Special Collections Department the well-known Alexander Rueb collection as an institutional member of the Ken Whyld Association. Roelof Jansma, the associate curator of the "Bijzondere Collecties" is responsible for the Rueb chess collection, he has sent us a short information (in English) about the latter as well as a Dutch article, published in October 2004 in UvA-Link, the quarterly of the library and of the information center: original (in Dutch), English and German translation (all pdf files).

On the inside of the Special

Collections

Roelof Jansma at the entrance of the Special Collections

Roelof Jansma at the entrance of the Special Collections